Sometimes it's just love at first sight! Godo is the kind of a cat who immediately touches your heart. With his unique face, this beautiful big softy is irresistible.
And his striking tailor-made black suit makes him a true gentleman!
Godo did not have a good start in life. Late in 2016, he was found lying in the street, seriously ill and covered in wounds. At the shelter, Godo has made a complete recovery and now weighing around 7 kilos, he literally claims his own place in the sun. We estimate that he is about 4 years old.
Our Big Friendly Giant is the ideal housemate: he is friendly, easy-going and just loves hugs and kisses. At first, he may be a bit shy but before you know it he will be purring your ears off. Also take a look at the short video on this page. What you see is what you get: Godo is never finished cuddling and kissing!

Godo does very well in an apartment or a flat. Also, this ‘social animal’ goes very well with other cats. Of course, Godo is a "special” cat because of his FIV status.

So he needs a “special” owner: someone who gives him the care he needs, and the love he so much deserves.
